

Kruisbrink 65 Festival - Music competition for amateur musicians and conservatory students up to age 25

Are you an enthusiastic amateur musician/conservatory student and would you like to participate in a competition? As a soloist or with your ensemble? Read on quickly!

In 2023, Annette Kruisbrink, a composer from Zwolle, will turn 65. Stichting Podiumkunst Muzinder is organizing a festive music competition dedicated to her compositions.

Who exactly is Annette Kruisbrink?

Annette studied guitar and composition at the conservatory of Zwolle and became one of the leading contemporary guitar composers in the world. With her surprising compositions (already more than 400!) she won many prizes. Her work is often provided with a dose of humor and social commitment. As a guitarist she has performed in Argentina, Thailand and various European countries and plays in several chamber music ensembles such as The Anido Gitaarduo, Duo Kruisbrink & Van Essen, Trio Trobairitz and Ensemble Muzinder. As a teacher she is associated with Gitaarschool Anido. Annette is a much sought-after juror at guitar and composition competitions, has produced 26 CDs of her compositions and has written a large number of didactic works and methodologies for guitar.

Music contest – Saturday morning 11th of February, 2023 at the ArtEZ Conservatorium, Zwolle
You will prepare 1 or more works by Annette Kruisbrink for the competition.
Check out Annette Kruisbrink's compositions on her website: www.annetekruisbrink.nl
Or listen on YouTube: www.youtube.com/annetekruisbrink

Prizes

There are great prizes to be won!

Do you want to know which ones? Continue reading about how to register, prizes and terms and conditions at www.muzinder.nl/kruisbrink-65-festival.

Register soon, there is a limited number of places available!

Good luck!

Stichting Podiumkunst Muzinder